

EXAMINATION OF SUBTREASURIES AND DEPOSITARIES.

L E T T E R

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

REQUESTING

AN APPROPRIATION FOR EXAMINING SUBTREASURIES AND DEPOSITARIES.

JANUARY 13, 1902.—Referred to the Committee on Appropriations and ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
Washington, January 13, 1902.

SIR: I have the honor to request that there be appropriated and made immediately available the sum of $3,000 as a deficiency in appropriation "Examination of subtreasuries and depositaries, 1902."

It is customary to examine an office and to assist in its transfer whenever an assistant treasurer is newly appointed, or reappointed and qualified. It will be necessary to examine the office of the assistant treasurer of the United States at New York soon, and probably one or two other subtreasury offices before the close of the present fiscal year. The amount appropriated for this purpose is $3,000 only. No part of this amount has yet been expended, but more than that amount was expended when the New York office was examined four years ago.

Respectfully,

L. J. GAGE,
Secretary.

The SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
